Re: Royal Visit to Canada, May 2022

Your Royal Highness'

On behalf of my Indigenous Nation, created as per Champlain's statement a "New Race of People, the Natives with the French" I extend our ASMIN Nation's best wishes.

Subsequently from our last correspondences, where-in you suggested that you would give a response to our request for clarification of our indigenous rights in Canada, numerous laws in Canada have been enacted that impede the human and Indigenous rights of our Nation.

Since 2016, when Her Royal Highness's and my cousin, the Right Hon. PM. Justin Trudeau was elected, he has refused to meet with our Nation, to discuss the Constitutional Law of Canada (Royal Proclamation), requiring signing of a treaty with our un-surrendered un-ceded Indigenous Nation.

Our Nation has over 10 cases and more being generated, proceeding to the Supreme Court of Canada (land claim in Trespass) and the International Courts. Canada's Aboriginal Affairs refuses to fulfil their constitutional requirement to consult.

At this point, is a very mute issue. The judges are violating their own laws in breach of trust and dishonour to the Crown.

As an elder in my Nation, I respectfully request a possible meeting with you both, when you arrive in Ottawa, the land of my Anishinabek un-ceded Nation's territories.

For point of reference with respect to my statement above of our cousin - The Prime Minister, is a multiple cousin of mine as well. I've attached my genealogy of my early French relations. The founding of the Metis people of New France was a direct result of low populations and it appears that directly, unless my research is in error, I am a direct cousin, albeit many times removed of your Royal Highness Duchess of Cornwall, on over 31 lines.

My oldest Metis line is of Champlain's interpreter, who married the Nipissing/Huron women, siring the first recorded Metis, in the colonial paper trail of a Metis birth, my 9th great grandmother. The early French colonials were very inter-related and most married native.

I trust you both will have a wonderful trip to Canada in May. And our ASMIN Nation expresses great blessing to Her Majesty the Queen.

May we all go in a good way; the grandmothers are watching.
