BIO: Grand Chief Wabiska Mukwa (Zane Plouffe Bell) BSc., F.W.T, F. T

The Grand Chief is the Hereditary Chief of the ASMIN an un-surrendered un-treated Métis Nation. Now the Nation is referred to as Indians as per the Daniel’s vs. Canada, Supreme Court decision, (April 14, 2016).

The Grand Chief (Age 70) is currently working in Resource and Land Management for the Nation and for international sustainable development. Formally he was, Acting Senior Scientific Advisor for the Federal Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development (INAC Ont. Region) till retirement in 2004. He has worked for all levels of government from Environment Canada, HQ and Ontario Region, Ontario Ministry of the Environment, Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources, and as an Environmental Technologist for The Town of Lindsay, Ontario, in the early years.

Upon following the grandfather’s instructions, the Chief followed an educational path through both native and colonial education, to learn the ways of contemporary society, entering and working within the three tiers of government to protect the earthmother. The Chief has diplomas in forestry, fish and wildlife and a Bachelors of Science in Biology from Trent University and he follows traditional medicine, harvesting and cultural activities.

The Chief is currently involved in the leadership role, of many of the Nation’s domestic and international developments in resource management, from harvesting to industrial utilization, in the energy sector, sustainable housing, food production, finance, education and health services. He is a traditional indigenous Metis advancing his Nations sovereignty issues, as being the oldest Metis Nation that is un-surrendered and un-treated in Canada.
