RE : Bad Faith and Breach of Trust, by Intentions and/or Omissions, Charter Rights Violations????

Dear Elected Officials:

For many years we have been peacefully attempting to meet and discuss important Indigenous Issues before the Canadian Government. The consistent refusal of the Government to meet and discuss these issues is beyond understanding – unless, as stated above it is indeed by intention and omissions in bad faith in dishonour of the Crown (misprision of treason). Pursuant to the Supreme Court Decision of April 14, 2016 the Royal Proclamation is in full force. Canada removed its objector status to the United Nation’s Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous People (International Law).

So in summary, since H.R.H the Queen instructed Canada through the Governor General of Canada to resolve our Comprehensive Claim (2015) as filed twice to the United Nations, and the conspired deliberate failure of “duty to consult duty to accommodate” or common courtesy to meet with our leaders we must take it that this is a deliberate intention to continue to breach, the very foundation of our Constitution Charter rights and freedoms.

This adversarial positioning of the Government must cease, the government meets anyone and everyone except for our Nation, no explanation can be realistically given for this breach of trust and bad faith which is a breach of the original “letter of “mark” the occupation of our ancestral lands to the detriment of Canada and Canadians benefit.

With Respect to Canada’s intent to go to China to resolve various trade disputes, if at any time in the last 4 years had the Government of Canada met with our senior Chiefs and experts to understand the complex nature of our ASMIN Nation’s international developments, for which we are precluded to do so in Canada, things would be very different. We are not savages living in wigwams. We are currently scientists, economic and industrial leaders in various fields. We have excellent connections with China and the Pacific Rim. The Failure to Consult with Indigenous experts the backbone of the developing economy of the fledgling Canada, appears to show the myopic vision of the Government of Canada for sustainable economic development and the growth of Canadian society.

If you don't consult you can't learn nor resolve issues. Your government's statement about continued to move on conciliation in a meaningful way is meaningless if you refuse to meet with our Nation for one!

I trust that you will arrange the meetings with our Nation that your various Ministers said they would arrange immediately. Working in a good way for the benefit of Canadian rather than the isolation of a key component of the Canadian demographic, I would think would be a good thing.

Go in a good way the Grandmothers are watching
