Re: Request for meeting to begin treaty negotiation pursuant to United Nations Protocol Treaty Handbook / Instructions by HRM the Queen 2015, UNDRIP.

Dear Sir:

Since 2004 we have been writing the government for a meeting with the Prime Minister and associate Ministers to no avail.

WE are not a surrendered nor treated Indigenous Nation nor a service provider created to provide services that are funded by the crowns. WE are a un-treated un-surrendered Matriarchal Indigenous Nation (Métis) created prior to 1600 on which our lands are occupied by the foreign trade colony of Britain - the Corporation of the Constitutional Monarchy of Canada.

Pursuant to the UN Declaration of Human Rights and the UN Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous People we submitted our comprehensive claim to the Crowns of Canada and H.R.H the Queen and the United Nations on February 11, 2009 and resubmitted in April 2015. H.R.H the Queen instructed the Governor General of Canada to instruct the Canada to resolve the issue under the simple signature protocol pursuant the UN Treaty Handbook.

The time is now, as you have acknowledged on your web site to resolve this critical constitutional issue for Canada and its native people. Failure to do so will result in lengthy litigations. The Daniel's versus Canada upheld the Constitution of Canada 1982 and the Daniel's case upheld the Royal Proclamation (1763) with regards to treaty and treason of agents of the crown in abuses and the topic of treason of such same individuals.

“Moving forward with recognition and reconciliation means we cannot continue to rely on adversarial court proceedings to lead the way. By issuing this Directive, our Government is taking transparent and meaningful action that encourages a shift in legal strategies towards collaborative approaches which respect the important relationship between the Crown and Indigenous peoples.” The Honorable Jody Wilson-Raybould, P.C., Q.C., M.P. Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada (<https://www.canada.ca/en/department-justice/news/2019/01/attorney-general-of-canada-issues-directive-on-civil-litigation-involving-indigenous-peoples.html>)

I respectfully request an immediate meeting to sign the attached MOU of the Intent to enter the UN treaty process under simple signature. Failure to do so will launch effective litigations against the crown and its representatives, pursuant in part, the section in the Royal Proclamation of charges of “treason”.
